Adam's and Christ's Complement

Genesis 2:18-25

by — John H. Essex (1907-1991)

And saying is Yahweh Elohim, "Not good is it for the human, for him to be alone. Make for him will I a helper as his complement." And furthermore Yahweh Elohim, having formed from the ground ...

We pause for a moment and ask, What did God form from the ground?

Was it a woman that He formed? The answer is, No. We continue,

... having formed from the ground all field life and every flyer of the heavens, He is also bringing it to the human to see what he will call it.

We may ask, Whatever has this to do with finding a complement for Adam? But wait – let us read on.

And whatever the human living soul is calling it, that is its name. And calling is the human the names for every beast and for every flyer of the heavens, and for all field life. Yet for the human He [God] does not find a helper as his complement.

Now do we see the force of this Scripture, that out of all which had been created there was not one that could be found to be a complement for man.

THE COMPLEMENT COMES FROM WITHIN

All could be brought to him to be named, and the names that he gave them could be associated with them for perpetuity, but there was no one to which the name of "complement" could be given. Why? Because all of these were external and of different species, and the one that was to be his complement must come from within and be of the same kind.

The word "complement" means "that which fills up," and there could be no filling up if the place were not first made vacant. Adam, before the woman was taken from him, was complete in himself; afterwards, the woman made him complete.

CHRIST'S COMPLEMENT

Now this teaches us a very great scriptural truth with regard to Christ and His Ecclesia. In all of the magnitude of creation, among all the hosts of Heaven that inhabit the vastness of space (and Heaven is not short of inhabitants) there were none who could rightly be termed Christ's complement. There were none of the same kind. No, His complement too must come from within, and that is why we have it, Chosen in Him before the disruption of the world (Ephesians 1:4).

This is the aspect of the Ecclesia which is ever before the eyes of God. He sees it preeminently, not as a multifarious conglomeration of individuals, chosen from without, to be brought into Christ (although, from another aspect, this is indeed a fact), but God views it as a single entity, holy and precious, and chosen from within.

It is on this “within” aspect of the Ecclesia that we desire to ponder. It is this “within” aspect that entitles it to be called, “the Ecclesia which is His Body,” and which gives it an absolutely unique position in the whole Universe. It is the most exalted position that can be held by any of God’s creations apart from Christ Himself; it is also the most intimate position in its relationship to God.

The standing of the Ecclesia before God is influenced and determined only by the standing of the Son of God’s love in the eyes of His Father. The relationship of the Ecclesia to Christ, the bond that exists between them, and the strength of the love which Christ has for His complement are things that can be appreciated, even faintly, only by those whose minds are constantly dwelling on things above.

THE COMPLEMENT NOT A BRIDE

If only believers in general understood the true relationship between Adam and the one who was made his complement, they would much better understand the nature of the tie which exists between Christ and His Ecclesia. Adam never had to seek a bride. He never had to woo anybody. Indeed, as we have seen, there was no one among all creation that could be found as suitable for his complement. It was left to God to find one for him, and God did not form another being from the soil of the ground. Such a one might have become a companion for Adam, but could never have functioned as his complement. No, God provided Adam with a true complement, taken from within himself.

So it is with Christ. To find the Ecclesia, which is His Body, the Lord never comes to the Earth as a Bridegroom seeking a bride. He never comes to seek a complement from without: He leaves it to God to provide one from within.

If, as we say, believers in general only understood this, they would not sing such a hymn as “The Church’s one foundation is Jesus Christ, her Lord," without, among other things, altering the lines, "From Heaven He came and sought her to be His holy bride." It is good poetry, and a favorite hymn, but it is simply not true in connection with the Ecclesia which is His Body.

It is correct, of course, that the Lord is pictured in the Scriptures as a Bridegroom, but that is in connection with His relationship to the nation which He served when He came to Earth. The faithful in Israel will be the bride, and ultimately the wife, of the Lambkin; there is no such term as "the Bride of Christ" in the Word of God.

The position of the Ecclesia, about which we are writing, is infinitely closer and more gloriously connected to its Lord and Head than ever the Israelitish bride of the Lambkin can be.

How then did Adam obtain his complement if he did not go forth to seek her? The answer is given in Genesis 2:21-23.

And falling is a stupor on the human, caused by Yahweh Elohim, and he is sleeping. And taking is He one of his angular organs and is closing the flesh under it. And Yahweh Elohim is building the angular organ which He takes from the human into a woman, and bringing her is He to the human. And saying is the human, "This was once bone of my bones and flesh from my flesh. This shall be called woman, for from her man is this taken."

Who did this? Who performed this miracle? Yahweh Elohim. Adam was quiescent throughout the whole operation; and so, for a similar reason, we find Paul saying, in Ephesians 1:3,

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who blesses us with every spiritual blessing among the Celestials, in Christ, according as He chooses us in Him before the disruption of the world.

So, to answer our earlier question, all down the centuries covered by the Hebrew Scriptures the illustration of the Ecclesia was hidden, unknown and unseen by anyone. It was, however, from the very beginning a great reality in the mind and purpose of God.

In due course, God caused a deep stupor to fall upon His Son, the stupor of death. For three days He lay in the tomb, and was then roused by the mighty power of God. In God's sight, the Ecclesia began a glorious Celestial existence to accord with the status of the risen Lord, for its realm is "inherent in the heavens," without spot or blemish, as His complement – that without which, even in His highest exaltation, He would not be complete.

CHRIST'S LOVE FOR HIS ECCLESIA

Adam's sleep was for his own sake, it is true, that he might have a companion; but in a special sense it was for the woman, that she might have a conscious and separate existence. Christ's death was, as we know, for all, but in a very special sense indeed it was for the Ecclesia, that it, too, might have a conscious and separate existence. So we read, According as Christ also loves the Ecclesia, and gives Himself up for its sake ... that He should be presenting to Himself a glorious Ecclesia ...

This is an ecclesia in which, through its union with Christ, God Himself would be able to find glory throughout all of the generations of the eon of the eons.

Thus, not the least of the blessings accruing to Christ as a result of His being obedient unto death is the fact that He now has a complement, the Ecclesia, which He dearly loves (Ephesians 5:25).

On this behalf am I bowing my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after Whom every kindred in the Heavens and on Earth is being named, that He may be giving you, in accord with the riches of His glory, to be made staunch with power, through His Spirit, in the man within, Christ to dwell in your hearts through faith, that you, having been rooted and grounded in love, should be strong to grasp, together with all the saints, what is its breadth and length and depth and height – to know, besides, the knowledge transcending love of Christ – that you may be completed for the entire complement of God (Ephesians 3:14-19).

There are, in fact, two ministries which date from pre-eonian times: the ministry of Christ (as God's Complement), and the ministry of the Ecclesia (as Christ's complement).

The ministry of Christ is one of life, in accord with the promise of life made in Him before times eonian (Titus 1:2). Christ, as God's Complement, fulfills His promise of life, for all of God's promises are "Yes" in Christ (II Corinthians 1:20). He never deviates from His mission as Life-giver.

The promise of life is centered in Him. He is the "Resurrection and the Life" – "the Way, the Truth and the Life" – "the Bread of Life."

As in Adam all are dying, thus also in Christ shall all be vivified (I Corinthians 15:22).

From before eonian times God determined that all should have life (for Him to be God of the dead is inconceivable; e.g. Matthew 22:32). So, He appointed His Son to be the means by which His promise of life should be accomplished. At Calvary, Jesus said, "It is accomplished."

Even in His death He gives life. Indeed, life to all is now guaranteed; so much so that Paul, when he announces in I Corinthians 15:20 that Christ is roused from among the dead, can immediately go on to declare that God will be "All in all" (:28). That is to say, once Christ is roused from among the dead, there is no power in the Universe that can prevent God's ultimate from being accomplished, for all sovereignty and authority and power is made subject to Christ, and the apostle specifically excludes God Himself from this subjection in order to show that all else is included. Further, death itself is declared to be abolished, so effective and so complete is the ministry of Christ!

The Church's Heavenly Character

by — Charles Henry Mackintosh (1820-1896)

During the greater part of the nineteenth century, there lived and labored in Great Britain a true and devoted servant of God, Charles Henry Mackintosh (1820-1896). He was one of the early Brethren, commonly called Plymouth Brethren. His chief writings are found in the six-volumes Notes on the Pentateuch, and the six-volumes Miscellaneous Writings of C.H.M. He never used his name in connection with his writings and to most of his readers he is known only by his initials "C.H.M." In 1850 he wrote a series of papers on The Life and Times of Elijah. In the final paper of this series under "Concluding Remarks" we find a strong testimony in confirmation of the unique ministry of Paul. This section is reprinted here as The Church's Heavenly Character. – Otis Q. Sellers (1901-1992)

But God has also determined (again, from before eonian times) that the basis of ultimate salvation shall be His own grace, and not the works of the creature; and thus the Ecclesia is appointed as Christ's complement to supplement the ministry of life which Christ is operating.

THE MINISTRY OF GRACE

So, God begins to display His grace – His absolute grace – first to the members of the Ecclesia itself as they are called one by one from the sons of humanity, and then through the Ecclesia to all creation. For it is a ministry not limited to the Earth, but is to be displayed in the eons to come among the Celestials.

The ministry of the Ecclesia – this ministry of grace – is not one suddenly conceived by God to take over where other ministries fall short, though in fact it does just that, as we shall see presently. No, it is the earliest projected ministry in the Universe, apart from that of Christ Himself. It dates indeed from the time when only God was in existence, He conceived that Christ would be His Complement, and also that Christ would have a complement – the Ecclesia. And so, the Ecclesia has its ministry defined in the gift that was given to it in Christ Jesus before ever the eons began – Grace.

How wonderful it is that the whole future of the Universe depends upon those primal decisions of God, to bestow life through His Son and to display grace through the Ecclesia! It is just impossible for us to grasp, in full measure, the honor which God has bestowed upon us as members of the Ecclesia!

But what is this ministry of grace? Can we define it further? To be sure we can, for it is clearly set forth in Ephesians 2:8-10,

For in grace, through faith, are you saved, and this is not out of you: it is God's approach present, not of works lest anyone should be boasting. For His achievement are we.

This is the definition of absolute salvation. In this, the flesh has no place; law has no place; works have no place. All these were dealt with, and were shown to be at enmity with the evangel of grace, in the earlier epistles of Romans, Corinthians and Galatians.¹ Indeed, in Romans 8:20, all creature effort is shown to be nothing but vanity.

Here, in Ephesians 2, all is centered upon God's operations. Salvation is made to depend on Him, and Him alone. We become His achievement, and we are to display the transcendent riches of His grace (which have already been bestowed upon us) to all creation so that the rest, too, may ultimately become His achievement, created in Christ Jesus. BSN

Studies from Genesis 12-50. This writing presents the spiritual careers of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Joseph. God's dealings with these four patriarchs are rich in lessons of permanent value. With exquisite, artless simplicity they demonstrate the frailty of our frame, accentuate the gentle forbearance, and illustrate the inexhaustible grace of our heavenly Father.

The Believer's Warfare

by — Clyde L. Pilkington, Jr.

The believer is in the middle of an ancient spiritual warfare that is as old as mankind. The battle itself, although intense, is not complicated. It is not a process of spiritual hoop-jumping. Indeed it is simple. The Believer's Warfare surveys a few key passages of Scripture to reveal God's sure plan of victory in the life of His saints.

"I have really enjoyed The Believer's Warfare. For years I have struggled with my walk with Christ, bouncing 'in and out of fellowship'; using some human effort to try and control the flesh. It seems as though I still have a lot of legalistic and guilt-ridden programming in my brain." – OH
